A 48 year-old GHMC worker, who committed the theft of a bag containing ₹30 lakh cash, was arrested by the Gopalpuram police on Monday. Police seized ₹28.40 lakh stolen cash from the accused.

According to police, on August 1, B Mohini, resident of New Nallakunta, lodged a complaint with police saying that her bag containing ₹30 lakh cash went missing while she was travelling in an auto. Based on a complaint, police registered cases and took up investigation.

The Deputy Commissioner of Police (DCP), North Zone, B Sumathi said that the detective team zeroed in on the auto in which complainant was travelling and the auto driver was summoned to appear before police suspecting his involvement.

"After questioning the auto driver, we formed four teams and collected footage of CCTVs installed at the place of offence took place. We have verified footage at least 42 cameras and found a bag falling from auto near, Bawarchi hotel of cross roads. The footage revealed that the GHMC worker was picking up the bag," the DCP said.

Police came into contact with GHMC supervisor Srinivas and identified the worker as Ramulu, a rickshaw puller. Based on information, police detained Ramulu and questioned him. During the investigation, Ramulu confessed to have taken away the bag.

Based on confessional statement, police recovered ₹5 lakh from a nearby dumping yard and from there, police proceeded to Gangaram of Maheshwaram and recovered ₹23.40 lakh at his house. The accused further confessed that he gave ₹59,700 to his son K Srisailam for buying a two wheeler and ₹1 lakh to his brother-in-law V Srisailam to meet the medical expenses of his wife's treatment.

Police recovered a total of ₹28.40 lakh from the accused. The accused was arrested and produced before the court.

Man arrested for using pepper spray on women just for 'fun'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hyderabad

A 19 year-old youngster, who harassed a woman using pepper spray because he thought it was 'fun', was arrested by Kalapathar police on Monday.

The accused, Yasin Ahmed works at a water servicing centre. Police inspector M Ravi said the accused was drinking near the Zoo park and was harassing passers by using the pepper spray. Soon, local people gathered around and caught hold of the accused and began thrashing him. He was then handed over to a police patrol that was passing by the area.

Later, one Zaheera Begum lodged a complaint with the police stating that when she was walking towards to Mochi Colony, the miscreant came to the place in intoxicated condition and started using pepper spray on her.

She was shifted to nearby hospital by locals. Based on complaint, police registered a case 324 (voluntarily causing hurt by dangerous weapons or means) of IPC and arrested him.

Six people, mostly women, developed rashes and complained of burning sensation after the accused used it on them

Roof collapse: records of students' taken over

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hyderabad

THE State Education Department officials visited the New Century Public School, Kukatpally, where two school children lost lives and three others were grievously injured after the roof of a stage collapsed and came crashing down on them, and recovered all records on Monday.

Officials said that the records would be used to send the transfer certificates of the 160 students currently on the rolls of the New Century Public School, to other schools where they would be seeking admission.

On Saturday, the department had issued a list of 11 schools in the vicinity and had instructed parents to approach any of those to admit their children. After the tragedy struck, the School had been sealed by the officials. In addition to the school being losing its affiliation, there is a likelihood that the entire building would be razed.

Speaking to Express, V Anjaneyulu Mandal Education Officer, Medchal said he conducted a meeting with the parents informed them that the Century School management has agreed to refund the fee of the students who had paid the fee for the entire academic year.

Boduppal youth nabbed for killing lover

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Hyderabad

A 25-year-old painter, who had killed a 30-year-old woman who was in relationship with him, was arrested on Monday. Rakesh alias Rakesh Rai had set Syed Shannu ablaze with kerosene when she refused to marry him. Shannu, a mother of two kids, succumbed to more than 98 per cent burns she sustained.

According to the police, Shannu, along with her two children, had been residing with her father at Boduppal after her husband had deserted her eight years ago. Recently, she met Rakesh, who lives in the same colony, and developed friendship with him which later turned into an extra-marital affair. Since then they had been meeting frequently. On July 27, after Shannu's father Shaik Mahmood left home for work, Rakesh went to meet Shannu who was alone. He told her that he wanted to marry her but she declined him, saying that she was already a mother of two children and could not marry him. When he pressurised her, an argument broke out between them. An infuriated Rakesh emptied kerosene from a bottle and set her afire. Hearing her cries, neighbours rushed to her aid and took her to a hospital with more than 98 per cent burns but she died on the same day.

Acting on a tip-off, police nabbed Rakesh in UP. During interrogation he confessed to the crime, said G Sundeep, assistant commissioner of police, Malkajgiri.

Prisons dept continues fight against obesity

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Hyderabad

THE Prisons Department is trying to tighten the belt of its force. In a bid to make its men fitter, Director General Prisons VK Singh has issued an order to 1,600 staff members to manage their BMI. The department has identified about 56 men in the team who tip over to the unhealthy side with a BMI exceeding 25. "This is not a new exercise, since the last 3 years we have been undertaking monthly fitness tests. Those identified are given a charge memo declaring them 'physically unfit' and a time of 3 months to reduce their weight. They are even referred to the in-house doctor for consultation," Singh said.
