Houthi threat to resume

YEMEN's Houthi rebels warned shippers on Wednesday that 'any Israell vessel' travelling through nearby Mideast waters is now a target as Israel continues to block aid to the Gaza Strip. The warning from the Houthis again throws into chaos a crucial maritime waterway between Asia and Rurope, threatens revenue from Egypt's Suez Canal and possibly will halt aid shipments to war zones. The rebels in the past have also had a loose definition of what constitutes an Israell ship, meaning other vessels could be targeted as well. The statement from the Houthis' Humanitarian Operations Coordination Center follows a four-day deadline set by the rebels for facel to resume aid shipments. "We hope it is understood that the actions taken by the Houth in the control of a control of the control of the control of and in the control of aid, in clientification of the control of aid, in cli taking hold in the Red Sea, the Gulf of Aden, the Bab el-Mandeb Strait and the Arabian Sea. The statement added: "Any Israeli vessel attempting to vicate this ban will be subject to military targeting in the declared operational area." There was no immediate sign of an attack on ships. Israel's military did not respond to a request for comment.
